The Future is Now!

We are building a new senior/social service center in Delray Beach!

Thanks to a grant of $2 million from the state, we now have the seed money to build a 20,000 square foot building near Temple Anshei Shalom on Atlantic Avenue, west of Jog Road. To meet the ever increasing needs of our community, our new building will house:

- Expanded Forster Family Kosher Food Pantry
- Congregate Kosher meal site
- Counseling
- Support groups
- The Welcome Home drop-in center for chronically mentally ill adults
- Holocaust survivor services
- ...And a café for bagels and schmoozing!
Message From CEO & President

September 1, 2006 through August 31, 2007 was a year of growth and excitement for Ruth Rales Jewish Family Service (RRJFS).

RRJFS was the recipient of a three year contract from the Area Agency on Aging, in the amount of $1.7 million for each of the three years, naming us as the lead agency serving seniors in south Palm Beach County. Being awarded this contract underscores the community’s confidence in us to continue to serve the most vulnerable elderly in our service area—no matter how adverse the circumstances. Our scope of services expanded dramatically and we were delighted to form new alliances and creatively collaborate with organizations ranging from area schools, nursing homes, foundations and home health care agencies.

Inter-generational programs enable us to combine our service delivery expertise in the areas of teens and seniors. Through a grant from The Community Foundation for Palm Beach and Martin Counties, we are able to expand our successful Teen Connect program and match teens from Olympic Heights High School in Boca Raton with seniors at area assisted living facilities. We were also recognized for our high quality services when Caridad Center asked to develop their mental health counseling program. Thanks to funding from Hands on Tzedakah, we placed a Spanish-speaking social worker at the Caridad Center, to counsel migrant workers.

We also want to express our gratitude to an anonymous contributor, whose generous donation will pay for full fellowships to train master of social work students to be the future leaders of agencies like our own. We are working closely with the Wurzweiler School of Social Work at Yeshiva University in New York, to develop the RRJFS South Florida Fellowship for Social Work Excellence.

By the year’s end we had acquired land in west Delray Beach, near Temple Anshei Shalom, to build a 20,000-square-foot senior center. You can see the architect’s beautiful rendering on the facing page. What a way to end an exhilarating year!

Of course, none of these exciting projects would have been possible without the extraordinary support of many individual, corporate, community and governmental donors who enabled us to reach this new level. We must express a special “thank you” to our community partners, the Jewish Federation of South Palm Beach County, the Area Agency on Aging, the Children’s Services Council and United Way for their continuing support. Together, they all allow us to fulfill our mission and pledge to strengthen our commitment to the 35,000 clients we serve annually.

Every day, through your help, we are making a difference in people’s lives.

Thank you.
Lead Agency Grant Awarded

On September 1, 2006, the Area Agency on Aging designated Ruth Rales Jewish Family Service as the lead agency serving seniors in south Palm Beach County.

We thank all those government servants who made this possible, including U. S. Congressmen Tim Mahoney, Robert Wexler, Ron Klein, State Sen. Ted Deutch and State Rep. Kelly Skidmore.

Departing RRJFS President Michael Mullaugh honored Palm Beach County Commissioner Burt Aaronson with the agency’s Community Recognition Award for helping to fund the Diamond Club, a social group for people age 75 and older. The club now has more than 150 members. Mullaugh said, “We are grateful that Commissioner Aaronson embodies the government / non-profit partnership that is essential for helping seniors.”
Highlights and Accomplishments

We have much to be thankful for this year. This was the year our budget jumped from $5 million annually, to $7.5 million. To meet our expanding mission and goals, staff increased from 48 to 67. Our services to an ever expanding population also grew.

- We offered bereavement, Parkinson’s and cancer support groups for those in need here at the agency, in Delray Beach and various assisted living facilities in south Palm Beach County.
- We provided caregivers free support groups.
- We offered free individual counseling to caregivers. With this wonderful program, we helped spouses who take care of their sick partners, as well as comforting people over age 60 who have a child at home, or who take care of someone who is mentally ill.
- Our cancer and lymphedema support groups helped 373 people over 60 sessions.
- We served Shabbat meals to hundreds of local families and delivered food bi-weekly to 425 households.
- Through our Café Europa program held twice a year we gave more than 600 Holocaust survivors an opportunity to have lunch, entertainment and socialization with other survivors. In addition, we provided assistance to all survivors who needed our services.
- Our community outreach has increased 11% over the previous year.
- We reached thousands of students in Palm Beach County schools, helping them cope with bullying and anger.
- We provided more than 5,184 individual and family counseling sessions.
- Welcome Home, our daily drop-in center for the mentally ill, has increased participation by 20%. In addition we provided support groups to the families of the chronically mentally ill.
- We have more than 400 dedicated, outstanding volunteers, five of whom have been with us over 25 years. Volunteer activities range from phoning isolated seniors daily to check in on them to giving rides to seniors who have no other way to visit the grocery store or their doctors to being a big pal for a child in need.
- New grants are up almost $1.8 million, an increase of 350%. We continue to increase and diversify our funding.

Thank you for your continued support and generosity!
More than 350 people attended the Ruth Rales Jewish Family Service November 30th black tie benefit at The Polo Club in Boca Raton. The evening provided an opportunity for the non-profit, non-sectarian social service agency to raise money for its myriad of programs.

“We were very proud to chair this event, because the work of Ruth Rales is so important,” Ivan Gefen said. He co-chaired with his wife Linda and Marilyn and Stanley Barry. The crowd danced to songs such as The Platters’ ‘The Great Pretender.’
Ruth Rales Jewish Family Service Executive Director Dr. Jaclynn Faffer said the agency chose the Platters to entertain because, “Their hit record Only You inspired our gala’s theme: ‘Only you’ can make a difference.” Joey Dee and the Starliters warmed up the audience.

Auction prizes included a walk-on role in a Hollywood movie, a one hour ride in a 1950’s Navy fighter training airplane, Tiffany & Co. and Judith Ripka jewelry; Saks Fifth Avenue shopping sprees, artwork, sports memorabilia, gift certificates and vacation packages.
Golf Tournament

One hundred and thirty supporters of Ruth Rales Jewish Family Service enjoyed a golf tournament, barbecue and cocktail party at the Fountains Country Club in Lake Worth, chaired by Isabel and Arnold Friedman of St. Andrews. The proceeds benefited the programs of RRJFS.

Every player received a pair of leather Hi-Tec golf shoes. Raffle prizes included a 42-inch flat-screen, plasma TV; a $3,000 gift certificate for Judith Ripka jewelry and two $8,000 Regent cruises to Europe, Asia or the Caribbean.

Arnold Friedman said, “My wife and I have been involved with Ruth Rales for about a year and a half and we’ve come to greatly appreciate and respect how the agency helps the less fortunate. That is one of our major priorities and Ruth Rales’ goals move in the same direction as ours.”
Neighbors Helping Neighbors

Thanks to these very generous and hard working neighbors for helping to accomplish the Ruth Rales Jewish Family Service mission!

Addison Reserve

Forty volunteers packed 250 goodie bags for RRJFS’ elderly clients at a Passover model Seder. This “Mitzvah Crew” stuffed the bags with food they bought and delighted clients with a surprise $25 gift card from CVS.

Addison Reserve’s Don and Sharon Kabat, Harriet Mironov and Barbara Feingold organized the project and obtained a gift from Steinberg Global Management of Boca Raton. After lunch, Sharon Kabat played piano while the crowd danced and sang Yiddish songs.

Polo Club

The Polo Club of Boca Raton donated $5,000 to RRJFS to buy gift cards so its youngest clients could purchase shoes, sweaters and school supplies. The club’s Community Relations Committee, co-chaired by Ronni Brockman and Nate Miller, raised the funds so families with financial difficulties could shop at Target, Wal-Mart and Simon Malls.

One nine-year-old girl had refused to attend school because she was the only child without supplies. Her mother told RRJFS, “Now she can hold her head up high and enjoys school.”

St. Andrews

Several dozen volunteers regularly deliver food to low-income families. In addition, the state honored two St. Andrews residents, Herbert & Judith Levy as “Florida’s Grandparents of the Year.”
Awards / Celebrations

It was a banner year for Ruth Rales Jewish Family Service. In the same 12-month period the state of Florida honored three of the agency’s volunteers with prestigious prizes.

The state awarded Sandy Klein, a 25-year-volunteer and founder of the “Diamond Club,” a social group for people over age 75, “State Volunteer of the Year.”

The state honored Judy and Herbert Levy as “Florida’s Grandparents of the Year,” for delivering food to RRJFS clients. The Levy’s 12-year-old grandson, Dylan, nominated them with a drawing of the three bringing meals to a home during a rainstorm.

The Governor’s Commission on Volunteerism and Community Service praised RRJFS for training the chronically mentally ill participants who visit its daily drop-in center, to be volunteers to help King’s Point with hurricane readiness. The Welcome Home attendees stuffed bags with handy items for the next big storm for every apartment in the development.

Dr. Jaclynn Faffer celebrated her 10th anniversary as CEO, and Mark Cherny, supervisor of outreach and community services, was named “RRJFS Employee of the Year.”

Testimonials

“Please Accept My Heartfelt Gratitude”

In the last 13 years, CareLink has helped hundreds of families around the country, who are concerned about their elderly relatives in south Palm Beach County and need RRJFS to provide personal care. Here is what some of them had to say:

Mr. Horowitz has been an absolute delight...he has always acted professionally and diligently. His attention to detail has been most impressive. His knowledge...has proven to be enormously valuable resource to my parents...he has been instrumental in allowing my Mother and Father to continue to live on their own."

“You should be very proud of the much needed service that you provide to the community.”

MC
Princeton, NJ

I am writing to tell you how helpful the CareLink program has been to our family...It allowed us to keep my father-in-law in his Century Village home for as long as possible. Howard Horowitz was exceptionally caring, helpful and experienced. He frequently visited and called me with a detailed report...he was kind and he was professional. He always followed through...I am grateful that Jewish Family Service was there to help.

ES
St. James, NY

Please accept my heartfelt gratitude of appreciation for having the expertise, professionalism, insight, understanding and caring for providing social services for my father. I sincerely appreciate your ...super herculean efforts towards my father's care and needs.

IH
Bellmore, NY

Mr. Horowitz’s positive attitude and willingness to help my brother in his time of need, truly deserves the term, “Client Satisfaction.” He is a model for others to emulate. I thank Jewish Family Service for employing a talented person with a willingness to cooperate coupled with a passion for caring assistance.

JR
Budd Lake, NJ

As my mother's 30-year-battle with cancer was beginning to slip into its final stages, we were fortunate to have found you as a friend...to wend our way through the choices of nursing homes, home health aides and support for my father. You were consistently helpful and you were always respectful of my parent's needs while being honest with their children.

LP A
Delmar, NY

Words alone will never be able to thank you enough for all your kindness and courtesy in helping us to provide proper care for my mother. You helped guide us so that we could make the right decisions that afforded my mother her dignity to her very last day. For this we will always be indebted to you and the services of Ruth Rales Jewish Family Service.

Without your presence in our lives I don't know how we would have handled the problems we incurred with my mother...you are my angel on earth...Words alone will never be able to thank you enough for being there with us.

Mental Health Services

This year, we offered 5,184 clinical sessions. We also ran 9,217 hours of caregiver and bereavement support groups, while our cancer and lymphedema support groups served 373 people over 60 sessions.

Welcome Home

This year, Welcome Home, our daily drop-in center in Delray Beach, had 3,000 visits from the chronically mentally ill, an increase of 14 percent from the year before. More than 70 different people availed themselves of occupational therapy, socialization, encouragement and support. They enjoyed outings to Lion Country Safari, the Palm Beach Zoo, Morikami Museum and elsewhere. Welcome Home’s visitors learned how to make friends, apply for work and deal with anger and isolation. In doing so, they proudly grew in self esteem and independence.
Senior Services

On September 1, 2006, the Area Agency on Aging, under the state Department of Elder Affairs, designated Ruth Rales Jewish Family Service as the lead agency serving seniors in south Palm Beach County. We had 13,523 care management contacts. This is in addition to our services for Holocaust survivors and support groups for the public.
Services For Holocaust Survivors

Ruth Rales Jewish Family Service provided vital life sustaining services to 150 Holocaust survivors, 47 of whom came to us for help this year. RRJFS assisted with grocery shopping, laundry, cooking, housekeeping, personal care and transportation to doctors.

- RRJFS also provided $24,000 in emergency grants to needy survivors; who range from 75 – 85 years old, to help cover the costs of hearing aids, dental work, personal emergency alerts and housing.
RRJFS hosted two very successful Café Europas, luncheons for 600 people, who sit at tables from their home countries and reconnect with friends and relatives they have not seen in 60 years.

RRJFS also helped survivors receive restitution from their countries of origin, including an experienced volunteer who assists them with complicated paperwork.
As the needs of our community grew, Ruth Rales Jewish Family Service increased the number of people it assisted and the funds it disbursed. Last year, we helped 1,000 people and disbursed $350,000—an increase of 14% from the prior year.

Camp Breakaway Celebrates its 10th Year

- Camp Breakaway attracted 90 children, an increase of 21%. Altogether, this Poconos camp, founded in 1998, has fulfilled the dreams of more than 1,000 children.
Hands on Tzedakah Helps Caridad

Thanks to a generous donation by Hands on Tzedakah, we placed a part-time, bilingual social worker at Caridad Center. Since March 2007, she has counseled 330 migrant workers and farm laborers from three dozen countries.

Food, Medicine, Compassion

- Forster Family Kosher Food Pantry served 525 people, a 17% increase from the prior year and delivered 200 frozen Shabbat meals per week, a 33% increase.

- Silverstein Fund assisted 67 individuals and distributed $47,361 representing a 57% increase in funds distributed.

- Weinberg Prescription Assistance, during the fall of 2006, bought vital medications for 18 people and distributed $4,100.

- Viner Compassionate Care Program – disbursed $184,500, representing a 29% increase, assisting 151 children, including the Camp Breakaway kids.
Volunteer Services

Highlights

- Thanks to a grant from Volunteer Florida, RRJFS developed a neighborhood hurricane preparedness program in Kings Point in Delray Beach, utilizing 95 volunteers.

- When RRJFS was designated the lead agency serving seniors in south Palm Beach County, we started a new Telephone Reassurance Program specifically for wait listed clients and staffed by volunteers.

- We launched “Teen Connect,” an intergenerational program in which high school students from Donna Klein Jewish Academy made weekly “sunshine calls” to homebound senior citizens. The teens and seniors also met at a fun luncheon.

In Appreciation

The mission of Ruth Rales Jewish Family Service mandates that we make our programs and services available to all living in south Palm Beach County. Each and every gift we received in 2006-2007 supported more than 35,000 children, individuals and families who turned to us for assistance. Every contribution helped make a tangible difference in the lives of people who need it most: the frail and infirm, children from single-parent homes, caregivers of loved ones, the isolated elderly, the bereaved, the chronically mentally ill, families experiencing serious financial difficulties, Holocaust survivors and so many others.

We extend our sincere thanks to the following individuals, foundations and companies who contributed to our achievements by giving so generously to help us expand our efforts. We are pleased to acknowledge you and may your generosity serve as an inspiration for others in our community to open their hearts and offer a helping hand for many years to come.
