MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD CHAIR AND THE PRESIDENT & CEO

DEAR BOARD MEMBERS, SUPPORTERS, VOLUNTEERS, AND FRIENDS,

We are pleased to present you with the 2016-2017 Annual Report on the activities of Ruth & Norman Rales Jewish Family Services (JFS). Our fiscal year runs from September 1, 2016 through August 31, 2017. During this fiscal year JFS received our largest single one-time gift in the agency's history from the Estate of Bernard Sherman. This $2.3M gift will support our many programs and services which serve people of all ages and beliefs. In addition, our annual fundraising and legacy giving efforts continue to grow with several new and increased gifts.

We are extremely proud that for the third year in a row, JFS has earned a Four Star Rating from Charity Navigator, America's largest independent charity evaluator. This designation is important because our donors can trust that JFS utilizes our funds wisely in fulfilling our mission of providing help, hope and humanity to our neighbors in need. Also, for the third year in a row, JFS was named a Top Workplace by the Sun-Sentinel. The three years represent every year that the Top Workplace has existed in our area. What makes this award truly special is that the evaluation is based upon the feedback provided by our dedicated staff.

Since adding the Center for Families and Children, JFS has had the staff capacity to deploy immediately after a tragedy to support the community in times of need. Our Community Outreach professionals have provided support groups, linkages to emergency financial assistance and other available community resources following a hurricane or other crisis. As time goes on, the impact of having the Center for Families and Children is evidenced by the many positive outcomes resulting from all the program under this Center's umbrella.

One of those positive outcomes is in the Special Needs Department which added a for-fee case management service for adult children living in our community. This was created as a response to a community request, specifically for adults with disabilities, whose needs differ from our existing geriatric case management program, CareLink. Through donor support, JFS is able to provide both of these programs on a sliding-scale basis for those who qualify.

Recognizing the on-going and continued increased needs of our Holocaust Survivor clients, JFS received additional funding from the Claims Conference for Holocaust Survivor Assistance Program. In addition, as a result of grass roots efforts by many of our donors and supporters, we were able to successfully maintain current State of Florida funding for this program during the budgeting cycle.

Outgrowing our current space on the Federation campus, in August of 2017, JFS staff from our Senior Services and Career and Employment Services (CES) departments relocated into new space providing a state of the art training facility for CES, and allowing other programs the space they needed to continue to provide services.

JFS at Home, Inc. began repayment of the loan from JFS for start-up and operating costs. JFS continues to be a great partner of JFS at Home, Inc. as we strive to continue as the premiere human service agency serving our community. None of these accomplishments could ever be achieved without the efforts of our dedicated staff, Board of Directors, volunteers and YOU, our generous supporters. Thank you for your generosity in support of our work.

Sincerely,

Ron Reshefsky

* Includes funds restricted to the Food Pantry for $381,342

JFS provides a lifeline to individuals and families in crisis, providing emergency funds for basic necessities and other needs, including subsidized home care. The Jacobson Family Food Pantry provides bi-monthly food packages to qualified seniors, individuals and families. Meals on Wheels Program provides prepared meals to those seniors no longer able to cook for themselves.

JON AND ANNIE

Jon and Annie were living the American dream - until they weren’t. With two kids, a house in the suburbs, and a double income, they had money for Little League and dance lessons and the occasional date night. But Jon, a respected civil engineer, lost his job in the last recession. Eventually, he took whatever employment he could find, even if he was over-qualified, becoming one of an estimated 9 million Americans who is underemployed. Initially, the couple was able to dip into their savings and 401(k) for the essentials: health insurance, rent, power bill, groceries. They were reluctant to contact JFS, as the couple was used to their role of a JFS supporter, not a JFS client. When they came to us requesting assistance, we were able to help them by providing food through our Jacobson Family Food Pantry and by providing emergency financial assistance.

HIGHLIGHTS

A total of $305,000 in financial assistance was provided.

146 Jacobson Family Food Pantry Food Drives were held throughout the year.

110,000 pounds of food was distributed through the Jacobson Family Food Pantry.

Over $87,645 in aid as distributed through Hands on Tzedakah (HOT) Financial Assistance and the HOT Senior Assistance Program.

JFS WOULD LIKE TO RECOGNIZE:

The Jim Moran Foundation for their support of our Meals on Wheels Program. Publix Super Markets Charities for providing emergency hurricane supplies.
Care specialists help seniors age in place safely for as long as possible with dignity and independence. Services include assessment and planning, care coordination, patient advocacy, information and referral, companionship and many socialization opportunities. JFS is a vital link between loved ones living in our community and their families living out of state.

BEA

Bea spent her youth being sent from concentration camp to concentration camp. Now at 97 years old, all she wants is to be able to live in her own home for as long as possible. Because of JFS, she can. Bea receives home care and personal care through our Holocaust Survivors Assistance Program. Participating in socialization opportunities through our Telephone Reassurance and Friendly Visitor Programs reduces her feelings of isolation. In order to ensure Bea keeps up her strength, JFS provides her with food from our Jacobson Family Food Pantry. Bea is an intelligent, articulate and a very proud person who values her independence. Thanks to the services she receives through JFS, Bea is able to age in place with grace and dignity.

The Shirley & Barton Weisman Delray Community Center continues to provide a bright, cheery center for those 60 and over, where mind and bodies stay active and friendships are made. In June of 2015, JFS kicked off the Rales Rides program. The bus transportation program enables hundreds of seniors, who do not have their own transportation, access to the wealth of programs that take place at the Weisman Center.

JUDIE & STAN

Judie and Stan are performers at heart and lucky for us they love sharing their passion for dancing and acting by starring in Weisman Center productions.

Val Chevron, director of Weisman Center performances met the couple at a dance hall almost two years ago. Upon seeing them dance, Val immediately recruited them stating, “I need you for our shows!”

Stan stated “We love the fact that we can entertain so many people by doing what we love.”

When they are not preparing for an upcoming role, Judie & Stan participate in acting, dancing and even Improv classes, all offered at the Weisman Center.

Judie added “Improv is great for improving memory. Stan is incorporating his Improv skills in his upcoming role as a stand-up comedian.”

Judie and Stan met eleven years ago at a dance studio in Pompano. Both recently widowed at the time, found support in each other, which helped them get through the difficult times. Celebrating 10 years of marriage, their shared love for performing and more recently, participating in classes and performances at the Weisman Center, keep them going.

DAVID

When David walked into our offices for an initial assessment, his fragile emotional state was both complicated and textbook. At 55, he had lost his mother, for whom he had cared in her final months. He’d also lost a brother, felt estranged and harshly judged by his sister, and had never been close with his father. Timid and soft-spoken, he spent most days alone with his cat. He is also gay, which made him feel even more misunderstood and isolated. But David had a bachelor’s degree in psychology. He had worked as a medical coder. David initially had come to JFS for help finding a career path, but we recognized his counseling needs. After six months of therapy, he has developed life-changing skills in assertiveness, communication, acceptance, mindfulness, and self-compassion. Today, he attends a weekly LGBTQ support group facilitated by JFS. He also has twice-a-week therapy sessions and has worked very successfully to recognize the power of his persistence. David’s counselor says he is one of her most treasured cases. “It has been,” she says. “a joyful journey.”

JFS WOULD LIKE TO RECOGNIZE:
The City of Boca Raton for their support of our Counseling & Mental Health programs.

HIGHLIGHTS

Nearly 8,200 sessions of therapy, counseling, psychiatry and psychological testing were provided to 700 individuals and families.
Since its inception in 2013, the Center for Families & Children has experienced tremendous growth every year. Through the Center, JFS has been able to reach out and improve the lives of hundreds of families and children in our community. JFS received its largest one-time gift in the agency’s history from the Estate of Bernard Sherman. A portion of the $2.3M endowment will provide financial assistance to teens in our community enabling them to participate in Jewish life cycle events such as hebrew school, Jewish youth group trips & conventions, participation in the Maccabi Games, advocacy conferences, Israel experiences including High School in Israel, Gap Year Programs, and the March of the Living. This past year, JFS had expanded its Special Needs services by providing case management for adults with special needs.

DANA

At 23, Dana had thought she had met the perfect man. Unfortunately, after they got married, Billy became controlling and violent. A few months before we met her at a shelter, he had broken her arm. She swore it would be the last time he would ever hurt her. JFS helped her buy clothes and other essentials because she and her children, ages 2 and 4, had fled with very little. JFS paid her phone bill and helped with childcare while she looked for work. Eventually, Dana landed a job, and through our referral to Palm Beach County Victim Services, she was able to find an apartment. Her JFS Case Worker checks in with her from time to time. “I never knew life could be so peaceful,” Dana told us recently. “Thanks to JFS the kids and I are so happy.”

HIGHLIGHTS

$197,000 in scholarships enabled 295 children to attend summer camp.

159 New assessments were performed for victims of domestic abuse.

Assisted 46 individuals with special needs and their families by providing $50,000 in financial assistance.
From first time job seekers to those in career transition, Career & Employment Services (CES) is a free program focusing on clients’ individual strengths and goals. Career strategists create customized action plans to transform clients into job ready candidates aimed towards career success. This past year CES expanded its programming by adding three Transitions To Success Programs – each targeted to a specific market or demographic: Comeback Career for women looking to make a comeback in their personal and professional lives; GY6 Veterans Alliance helping veterans and service personnel transition into the civilian workforce; and WTOF Working Towards Our Future which helps high school graduates and those just starting a career with the skills they need to land and keep a job.

RIKKI

Sometimes around the office, we call Rikki our comeback kid. “I was so apprehensive about getting back into the workforce,” says Rikki, a JFS Career & Employment Services (CES) client who participated in our aptly named Comeback Career Program. “But with your support, encouragement and step-by-step plan, I was able to overcome all the obstacles I had in my way.” The biggest obstacle? “Going on that interview,” she says. For a lot of complicated reasons, Rikki hadn’t worked in a while. So when she was finally ready to re-enter the workforce, she was full of trepidation. Things had changed rather rapidly out there in the work force and she was nervous about writing a resume, filling out a job application and even deciding on what to wear. JFS helped her handle all of those challenges. She also meets with what she calls “a wonderful group of women” from the Dress for Success program - a non-profit agency that JFS often partners with - and they’re helping her make the right choices about a new work wardrobe. “JFS and specifically, the ‘Comeback Career’ Program at CES helped me have confidence and feel good about myself,” she says, about her comeback. “I was able to close one chapter, and start a new one.”

Volunteers remain critical to JFS’ success and the Agency would not be able to provide help to as many people in our community without their gift of time and talent. Each year over 1,000 program and special event volunteers, donate the equivalent of nearly 40,000 hours of service to JFS. Our volunteers mentor children and teens, lead Shabbat services at assisted living facilities and nursing homes, provide rides for seniors in need of transportation, deliver freshly prepared meals through our Meals on Wheels program, and reduce the isolation of homebound seniors through daily telephone calls, friendly visits and care packages.

MADELINE

Madeline Syde likes doing for others, and collecting gifts is a big part of what she is known for at JFS. Madeline can take a scrap of blue foil paper, wrap it around a fun tchotchke, tie it up with some ribbon, and, create happiness. “Everyone likes to get something pretty,” says Madeline, 84, who helps run the Monday morning Feldman Family Diamond Club meetings at the Weisman Delray Community Center. If you attend these events, you will be greeted by her at the front door, reminding you to enjoy a challah roll and stay around for the talk on current events. But Madeline’s real claim to fame might be the three parties she helps organize - Purim, Senior Prom and Hanukkah - and the trouble she goes through to collect and wrap all of the gifts. Cards, certificates, re-gifted treasures. She’s already started storing the wrapped presents in her closet for next Hanukkah. Madeline, who lives in Boca Raton, started volunteering with us after her husband, Harvey, died in 2009. Giving-back is part of her DNA. “I had two wonderful parents who taught me what tzedakah meant,” she says. “I learned a long time ago that if you’re going to do something, you need to put your heart into it.”

HIGHLIGHTS

Over 1000 volunteers donated more than 40,000 hours of service saving JFS $964,000 in labor.

Our Telephone Reassurance and Friendly Visitor Programs serviced over 55 homebound senior clients.

Parachaplains led Shabbat services at 16 locations in the community.

20 adults volunteered as mentors to young children through our Community Mentoring Program.

SEEING IS BELIEVING
Judi & Craig Donoff have seen first-hand how the many JFS programs assist our community from children to seniors; that’s why the Donoffs have chosen to convert their Donor Advised Fund into a permanent endowment to ensure the continuity of these programs after their lifetime.

GIVING IS A FAMILY TRADITION
Illana and Samy Dwek wanted to continue their family’s tradition of supporting their local community and always giving to those most in need. That is why the Dweks chose to make a bequest in their will to JFS, ensuring the continuity of our programs after their lifetime.

HOW BLESSED ARE WE?
This question is frequently posed by Diane & Larry Feldman when surrounded by the seniors they support through the Feldman Family Diamond & Adventure Clubs. That is why the Feldmans chose to make a bequest in their will to JFS, ensuring the continuity of their programs after their lifetime.

MAKING AN IMPACT
Michele and David Katzman are dedicated to helping others. In order to ensure the continuity of their impact after their lifetime, they chose to name JFS as a beneficiary in their IRA.
