We are pleased to present you with the 2017-2018 Annual Report on the activities of Ruth & Norman Rales Jewish Family Services (JFS). Our fiscal year runs from September 1, 2017 through August 31, 2018.

This fiscal year has been a challenging one for our community. It began with Hurricane Irma in September 2017, continued with the tragedy at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in February 2018, all while experiencing the continued upward trend of fatalities in our community resulting from accidental opiate overdoses throughout the year. No matter what the crisis, JFS was there to provide the help, hope and humanity to so many at their time of most need.

As a result of our experience with Hurricane Irma, we developed a plan for seniors or their family members to register with our “Storm Alert Team” and proactively recruited volunteers to be a part of our response. After the MSD tragedy, JFS was there for the community by providing counseling and working collaboratively with our sister agency, Goodman JFS of Broward. We also had several clinicians trained by the Israel Trauma Coalition, who came to Parkland to help the community move forward.

Unfortunately, substance use disorders continue to rise. To address this JFS, in partnership with the Jewish Federation, created a new program under the Center for Families and Children called “JFS CARES” (Community Awareness Resources and Education for those families struggling with Substance use disorders). As part of this initiative, we hired a part time Substance Use Outreach Coordinator and formed an engaged substance use task force to come up with a plan of action. In our first year we have engaged with local spiritual leaders, professionals, parents and the community at large to educate and bring awareness to this important topic.

We are extremely proud that for the fourth year in a row, JFS has earned a Four Star Rating from Charity Navigator, America’s largest independent charity evaluator. This designation is important because our donors can trust that we use our funds wisely in fulfilling our mission. Also, for the fourth year in a row, JFS was named a “Top Workplace” by the Sun-Sentinel, representing every year that the Top Workplace has existed in our area. What makes this award truly special is that the evaluation is based upon the confidential feedback provided by our dedicated staff.

Recognizing the on-going and continued increased needs of our Holocaust Survivor clients, JFS received significant increases in funding from the Claims Conference for our Holocaust Survivor Assistance Program. Additionally, JFS received a grant from JFNA to fund a Person Centered Trauma Informed (PCTI) Care Program, which educates professionals and community members who provide services to Holocaust survivors.

Personally, one of the most impactful memories for me over the past year, was participating in the March of the Living (MOL), which was funded with a grant from Meryl & Ron Gallatin. The Gallatins have been sending a JFS staff member on the MOL for the past four years and this experience has had a profound impact on all who have participated, including myself. I came away from the experience with a deeper appreciation for our Holocaust survivor populations and the work we perform through our programs.

None of these accomplishments could ever be achieved without the efforts of our dedicated staff, Board of Directors, volunteers and YOU, our generous supporters. Thank you for your support of our work.

Sincerely,

JFS provides a lifeline to individuals and families in crisis, providing emergency funds for basic necessities and other needs, including families with special needs children. The Jacobson Family Food Pantry provides bi-monthly food packages to qualified seniors, individuals and families. The Adele Loeb & Les Nackman Meals on Wheels Program provides prepared meals to those seniors who are no longer able to cook for themselves.

ARTHUR

Arthur, at age 89, had been an Adele Loeb & Les Nackman Meals On Wheels (MOW) recipient for over a year. Arthur had cancer and, though he had a sharp mind, was no longer able to prepare meals and had no friends or family to help him. Once registered for MOW, Arthur called to speak to the Meals On Wheels Coordinator, Rita. Every week it became clear that the program had become more than just a way for him to get food; it had become his lifeline to the outside world. He loved seeing the volunteers who delivered the meals and he always told Rita what a pleasure it was speaking with her. Sadly, Arthur recently passed away. Rita received a call from Arthur’s lawyer, who was at the hospital during Arthur’s last days. Arthur’s lawyer told Rita that when he asked Arthur whom he would like him to notify upon his passing, Arthur said “please call Rita at JFS and tell her thank you for me.”

JFS Would Like to Recognize:

The Jim Moran Foundation for their support of the Adele Loeb & Les Nackman Meals On Wheels Program. Publix Super Markets Charities for providing senior supplemental nutrition.

175,000 pounds of food was distributed through the Jacobson Family Food Pantry.
Care specialists help seniors age in place safely for as long as possible with dignity and independence. Services include assessment and planning, care coordination, patient advocacy, information & referral, and many socialization opportunities. JFS is a vital link between loved ones living in our community and their families living out of state.

Esther is an 87 year-old Holocaust survivor from a small town in Romania. Living in poverty, she and her family were somehow able to survive the many bombings and the daily fear of getting caught by the Nazis. After the War, Esther fled to Israel where she eventually married and had two daughters. Years later, after her divorce, Esther relocated to Florida where she cared for an aging aunt. She remained in South Florida after her aunt had passed and was employed by a hotel company where she had earned minimum wage. Without any savings to rely on, Esther receives help through JFS’ Holocaust Survivor Assistance Program. She is grateful for the homecare and personal care assistance she receives. Because she does not have any family, she relies on JFS to check in on her through daily phone calls through JFS’ volunteer Telephone Reassurance program, and weekly visits through our Friendly Visitors Program. Esther depends on food from our Jacobson Family Food Pantry to supplement food stamps. She constantly tells her JFS volunteers “JFS is my life saver”.

SHEILA AND LARRY

Sheila and Larry Meselsohn, married nearly 60 years with 3 children and 5 grandchildren, both volunteer at the Weisman Center. Eight years later, Sheila is devoted as ever to her work at the Center three days a week. Sheila stated, “I am thrilled to be a part of each person’s day, helping them make friends so they are not lonely and afraid. I feel so alive watching them.” Larry followed his wife’s lead and shares his knowledge and his countless hours of research by facilitating the “Stock Savvy” discussion group. Larry is moved by the comradery that the program has brought to its members over the last five years. Together, Sheila and Larry are a dynamic duo.

BRAD

Brad has successfully completed six years of counseling with a JFS psychologist. He made incredible progress in learning how to cope with childhood trauma. Brad learned that he was suffering from mild delusions and that he needed to control his anger and rage. He found his discoveries to be sobering, but it was through those discoveries that the door to his recovery was unlocked.

Brad reported to JFS how thankful he was to his therapist and for her enormous amount of time, patience, insight, and commitment to help him understand things that used to baffle him. It is directly due to JFS and the support and empathy that he received from his therapist, that Brad gained self-confidence, realizing that he did not have to constantly apologize.

Highlights

Nearly 8,500 sessions of individual and family therapy counseling, psychiatry and psychological testing were provided to 740 individuals and families.

SARAH
Sarah is a 40 year-old mother of two. During Sarah’s second pregnancy, her husband Jeff began verbally insulting her which quickly accelerated into pushing and beatings on a regular basis. Jeff did everything he could to isolate Sarah from her friends and alienate her family. With nowhere else to go, Sarah turned to JFS for help. Through our Domestic Abuse Education & Action Program, JFS provided guidance on safety planning and referred Sarah to Victim Services. Needing to support her children on her own, Sarah was referred to JFS’ Career & Employment Services to develop her job skills. To feed her children, she received assistance with food from the Jacobson Family Food Pantry. In order for her to relocate to safety, JFS provided her with funds to pay her rent and utility deposits. Sarah was hired as a teacher’s assistant and was awarded child support by the court. Her life is not easy, but she is able to support herself and her family. Most importantly, thanks to JFS, she is free from the fear and abuse that dominated much of her married life.

Since its inception in 2013, the Center for Families & Children has experienced tremendous growth every year. Through the Center, JFS has been able to reach out and improve the lives of hundreds of families and children in our community, inclusive of families with special needs. This past year, in response to the continued upward trend of fatalities within our area from accidental opiate poisonings, JFS partnered with the Jewish Federation of South Palm Beach County to create “JFS CARES” (Community Awareness Resources and Education for those families struggling with Substance use disorders).

Center for Families & Children
Highlights
Served 213 survivors of Domestic Abuse through counseling, referrals, and financial assistance.
Assisted 330 clients with special needs, including their parents and grandparents, by providing support groups, case management and financial assistance.
$210,000 awarded in summer camp scholarships enabling 310 children to attend summer camp.
From first time job seekers to those in career transition, Career & Employment Services (CES) is a free program focusing on clients’ individual strengths and goals. Career strategists create customized action plans to transform clients into job ready candidates aimed towards career success.

ALEX

Alex, 22, had failed out of college. Facing an ultimatum from his mother, he could no longer live at home unless he contributed financially to the household. Without a degree or job skills training, he was referred to JFS’ Career & Employment Services (CES). Although skeptical, Alex participated in CES’ monthly workshop, Steps to Success. Shortly after the facilitator started presenting, he thought she was speaking about him.

Alex spent the rest of the week diligently taking notes and participating in the workshop activities. Alex applied the knowledge he learned in class to his resume, job applications, and interview skills. Soon after, Alex had an interview at a local restaurant. He was hired and quickly received a promotion. Alex says, “I can’t believe how much this program helped me. I didn’t want to attend, but I am sure glad that I did.”

Highlights

- 258 clients candidates served through CES Programs.
- Provided financial assistance to 24 candidates for training and certification programs.
Volunteers remain critical to JFS’ success as the Agency would not be able to provide help to as many people in our community without their gift of time and talent. Each year over 1,000 program and special event volunteers, donate the equivalent of nearly 40,000 hours of service to JFS. Our volunteers mentor children and teens, lead Shabbat services at assisted living facilities and nursing homes, provide rides for seniors in need of transportation, deliver freshly prepared meals through our Adele Loeb & Les Nackman Meals on Wheels program, and reduce the isolation of homebound seniors through daily telephone calls, friendly visits and care packages.

NADIA

Nadia is a 97 year-old widowed female living alone. Several years ago, she lost her son to lung cancer. He had served as her primary helper and companion. Fortunately, she had sufficient resources to hire a private home health aide to assist with personal care. However, Nadia was extremely lonely and reached out to JFS for assistance. Through our Friendly Visitors Program, one of the many services offered through the Belford Family Volunteer Department, Nadia was matched with Tracy, a volunteer who visited with her every week. In a very short time, a strong bond formed between the two. Nadia refers to Tracy as her “lifeline to the outside world” and is so appreciative of JFS for helping to alleviate her feelings of isolation.

JFS Would Like to Recognize:

So Many Ways To Give

There Are Many Ways to Include JFS in Your Legacy Planning

SEEING IS BELIEVING
Judi & Craig Donoff have seen first-hand how the many JFS programs assist our community from children to seniors; that’s why the Donoffs have chosen to convert their Donor Advised Fund into a permanent endowment to ensure the continuity of these programs after their lifetime.

GIVING IS A FAMILY TRADITION
Illana and Samy Dwek wanted to continue their family’s tradition of supporting their local community and always giving to those most in need. That is why the Dweks chose to make a bequest in their will to JFS, ensuring the continuity of our programs after their lifetime.

HOW BLESSED ARE WE?
This question is frequently posed by Diane & Larry Feldman when surrounded by the seniors they support through the Feldman Family Diamond & Adventure Clubs. That is why the Feldmans chose to make a bequest in their will to JFS, ensuring the continuity of their programs after their lifetime.

MAKING AN IMPACT
Michele and David Katzman are dedicated to helping others. In order to ensure the continuity of their impact after their lifetime, they chose to name JFS as a beneficiary in their IRA.

YOU CAN TOO. FIND OUT HOW.
