MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD CHAIR AND THE PRESIDENT & CEO

DEAR BOARD MEMBERS, FRIENDS, SUPPORTERS, VOLUNTEERS, PARTNERS AND NEIGHBORS,

We are privileged to present you with the 2012 Annual Report of Ruth Rales Jewish Family Service (JFS). Our fiscal year ending August 31, 2012 was another sensational year for the agency.

We continue to celebrate the on-going success of the Shirley & Barton Weisman Delray Community Center. Each day over 250 seniors access the Center to enjoy a variety of activities and opportunities to socialize, meet with a counselor or case manager.

Our counseling and mental health department continued to grow with the addition of a number of per diem therapists ready to help our clients deal with the trials and tribulations of daily life. Our psychological testing department and psychiatry departments once again saw increased growth and we added parent coordination to our services. Funds received from our revenue generating activities helps support those unable to pay full fees.

The senior services department saw a marked increase in the number of Holocaust Survivors coming to JFS for assistance. In addition to many new clients needing help, the needs of our existing clients continued to increase as they became more and more frail. JFS was fortunate to receive an increase in our funding from the Conference on Material Claims Against Germany however, our needs have outpaced our resources and we are managing every dollar to make sure those in need are served.

We continue our efforts to leverage partnerships with other agencies while keeping a keen eye on the bottom line. All of these efforts strengthen our ability to provide innovative programs and services for the community. None of this could ever be accomplished without the efforts of our dedicated board, staff, volunteers and YOU, our supporters. We express heartfelt gratitude to all of you whose generosity helps us provide hope to those living in Boca Raton, Highland Beach and Delray Beach.

Please join us in taking pride in our accomplishments in 2012 and looking forward to good things in the year to come.

Sincerely,

Laurence I. Blair, Esq.
Chair, Board of Directors

* In addition to serving our clients, our strategy in 2012 was to generate enough funds to provide an adequate reserve so as to afford us the resources necessary to ward off any sudden increases in demand for services.
Care specialists help seniors age in place safely for as long as possible with dignity and independence. Services include assessment and planning, care coordination, patient advocacy, information and referral, companionship and many socialization opportunities. JFS is a vital link between loved ones living in our community and their families living out of state.

Lorna

Lorna Bork began her life surrounded by family and friends in Lodz, Poland. She carried little more than memories of them when she came to the United States in the 1940s after surviving the Nazi concentration camps at Auschwitz and Bergen Belsen. Today, she struggles with diabetes, a heart condition and severe rheumatoid arthritis. “If I didn’t have the help from Jewish Family Service, I probably wouldn’t be here now.” Ruth Rales Jewish Family Service provides Lorna assistance with the activities of daily living that enables her and more than 270 other Holocaust survivors to maintain aging in place with dignity.

688 seniors, including 250 Holocaust Survivors clients received help from JFS including care management, homecare and personal care coordination, friendly visits, rides to stay mobile, and other services – a 40% increase over last year.

The needs of our Holocaust survivors continued to rise significantly as they become more frail and resources are depleted. Thank you to the Claims Conference, the State of Florida, and the Jewish Federation of South Palm Beach County for their grants in support of this program.

The Feldman Family Diamond Club provided much needed socialization for those aged 75 plus with over 500 members gathering together every Monday for fun and friendship.

JFS would like to recognize Boca Homecare as the 2012 Senior Services Department Sponsor!

Judiac Programming
JFS offers counseling to individuals and families (including children), many support groups, workshops, psychiatric assessment and medication management, psychological testing, mentoring programs and a free drop-in center for adults living with mental illness and/or developmental disabilities. Specialties include mindfulness, social anxiety, divorce, domestic abuse and substance abuse.

5,000 people called JFS for information and referral services providing a vital link to both JFS and community services.

Over 1400 people sought counseling and mental health support including individual, family or group counseling, psychological testing and psychiatry services.

Community Mentoring Programs connected 30 children living in our community with mentors helping provide the support they need to grow into exceptional young adults. Thank you to the Children’s Services Council for their support of this program.

Our partnership with the Caridad Center in Boynton Beach continued providing bi-lingual counseling to families and children. Thank you to Hands on Tzedakah for their on-going support of this program.

The Welcome Home Program served 48 unduplicated people providing much needed life skills training and support to adults living with persistent mental illness and/or developmental disabilities. Thank you to Jarden Consumer Services for their support of this program.

After the death of her son, Rosalie Basson came to Ruth Rales Jewish Family Service for counseling. “I wasn’t in a very good way,” she readily admits. No one will ever be able to take away the pain of a grieving mother, but there are those who can offer comfort and hope.

The trained mental health professionals at JFS were able to shine a light into the darkness for Rossalie. “I learned to cope so that I wasn’t hurting so much,” she says. “I would definitely recommend JFS if you need help.”
JFS provides a lifeline to individuals and families in crisis, providing emergency funds for basic necessities and other urgent needs. The Jacobson Family Food Pantry at JFS delivers bi-monthly food packages to qualified seniors, individuals and families providing much needed sustenance to those in need. The Caring Doctors Program provides uninsured adults between the ages of 19-64 with pro-bono health care services provided by doctors in the community. We also provide interest-free loans through the Hebrew Free Loan Association and educational school loans through the Jewish Educational Loan Fund.

Denise and her husband had always taken care of their family. Despite their best efforts in the face of growing financial challenges, their money ran out and the cupboards grew bare. “My friend told me about the food pantry at the Ruth Rales Jewish Family Service,” Denise recalls. “It was a little awkward,” she admits. “I’ve never needed help like that before.” Without the bimonthly food deliveries from the Jacobson Family Food Pantry at JFS, she says her children would have gone hungry. “On behalf of all the people like myself, I would like to thank everyone who made this possible.”

BJ’s and Walmart awarded us grants to help purchase food for the Jacobson Family Food Pantry at JFS.

JFS assisted 1801 people with direct financial assistance distributing $160,000 – a 53% increase over last year.

544 individuals received bi-weekly food packages from the Jacobson Family Food Pantry at JFS.

A very active Food Pantry Committee helped to coordinate over 54 food drives during the year.
Volunteers remain critical to our success and we would not be able to provide help to as many people in our community without their gift of time and talent. Each year over 300 individuals and families, including many teens, donate the equivalent of more than 25,000 hours of service to JFS. Our volunteers mentor children and teens, lead religious services at assisted living facilities and nursing homes, provide rides for seniors in need of transportation, provide care to uninsured adults, and reduce the isolation of homebound seniors through daily telephone calls, friendly visits and care packages.

Our volunteers numbered 385 strong – a 28% increase– donating the equivalent of over 25,000 hours of service helping others.

32 volunteer drivers provided rides to 88 otherwise homebound seniors through our “kibbitz and ride” transportation program.

Telephone reassurance volunteers and friendly visitors provided services to 60 agency clients.

Last year, a record number of seniors reached out to Ruth Rales Jewish Family Service for help. Fortunately, there were hundreds of volunteers ready, willing and able to help the agency respond to their needs. Like Albert Schmier, a driver with the Kibbitz & Ride Volunteer Driving Program. “My enjoyment in being a volunteer is the ‘thank you’ that I get, the smiles that I see and the happiness in people’s faces when they know that there’s somebody here to help take care of them.” -Albert Schmier

Marilyn and her husband Norman still have each other but are unable to drive anymore. The loss of independence was a devastating blow to the couple. They couldn’t imagine there life without the independence driving gave them. Like so many seniors in our community, they worried about being able to go shopping for groceries, get to important doctor appointments and pick up prescriptions or other errands. Fortunately, the Kibbitz & Ride Volunteer Driving Program offered by Ruth Rales Jewish Family Service helps seniors age in place with dignity and independence. “Without the service, I don’t know what we’d do,” Marilyn says. “They have given us back our quality of life.” - Marilyn
