STEP 3:

Decide Where and When Your Food Drive Will Take Place

A food drive can take place anywhere (neighborhoods, schools, places of worship, places of business or at your own home). Food Drives that last several days are more successful because they provide ample time to receive contributions.

STEP 4:

Register your food drive and receive a JFS Food Drive Kit to help you get started. Contact: Julie Weisberg, Director of the Jacobson Family Food Pantry and Food Pantry Outreach, at juliew@ralesjfs.org or 561-852-3333.

The JFS Food Drive Kit includes a customizable flyer and poster template and collection boxes (30"x18"x18") for your use.

STEP 5:

Collect, Collect, Collect!

When your drive is completed, you may either request a donation pick up or drop the donations off at the food pantry. Students who organize a food drive will be provided with community services hours
